

CODE OF CONDUCT

MISSION STATEMENT

Williamson County Republican Leaders (WCRL) shall advance the ideals of the Republican Party as well as train Republican leaders for public service, particularly in Williamson County, Texas.

POLICY

It is a tremendous responsibility and honor to be a member of the Williamson County Republican Leaders. Members, endorsed candidates, and endorsed holders of public office shall:

- 1. Activity: be active participants in WCRL committees and functions as well as promote WCRL and the Republican Party.
- 2. Integrity: have strong moral principles including honesty, trustworthiness, and uphold the values of WCRL and the Republican Party to the best of their ability at all times.
- 3. Accountability: be held accountable for their decisions and actions that affect WCRL, the Republican Party, and/or the reputation of either.
- 4. Leadership: lead by example, encourage other members, address poor behavior appropriately, keep decorum, and behave professionally and respectfully.
- 5. Cooperation: cooperate fully with any process set forth by the WCRL Board should a grievance occur.

CAUSE FOR REVOCATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Without prejudice to its privileges and responsibilities under the Bylaws, the Board enumerates the following non-exhaustive list of behavior that may, at the Board's discretion, be cause for termination of membership in WCRL:

- Harassment or threats of harassment against WCRL or any Member, Guest, Speaker, or Host Facility.
- Fraud, libel, or slander of WCRL or any Member, Guest, Speaker, or Host Facility
- Unethical or illegal behavior inside or outside WCRL activities that impugns the reputation WCRL or any Member, Guest, Speaker, or Host Facility
- Embezzlement of WCRL funds or the use of WCRL funds without Board approval
- Misuse of real or intangible WCRL property (e.g., personal data of Members) for non-WCRL-related purpose

REPORTING: Advisory & Suggestions Committee, PO Box 1595, Cedar Park, TX 78631